Individual action plan check-in

What is an action plan?

All action plans include:

- Main goal
- Objectives
- Tasks
- Realistic and actionable implementation details
  - Start at what you can realistically implement in the next six months

Benefits:

- Raise awareness
- Increase involvement
- Improve community
- Learn

Two individual action plan deliverables

1. Individual action plan development worksheet
- Due by November 8.
- Electronic form can be emailed to ashelbourn@drcog.org.

2. Presentation (3 minutes or less, 5 slides or less)
- If doing PowerPoint/PDF/Word presentation, email to ashelbourn@drcog.org by November 8.
- We have PowerPoint templates in portal, or you can use your own.

The worksheet, PowerPoint template and past examples are in the portal under “individual action plan materials.”

Presenting your action plan

Final session: Nov. 10

- Present your individual action plan to the group.
  - Three minutes maximum each. Time will be strictly enforced to ensure everyone has time to share their plan.
  - May use presentation slides (five or less) but not required.
  - You select your presentation style - formal or casual, reserved or creative - you choose.
  - Email your individual action plan worksheet and up to five presentation slides or other presentation materials to ashelbourn@drcog.org by November 8.
